Aid for Starving Little Ones of Belgium is Asked By Pope Benedict.

Bahimore, Md. Dec 7—A gift of ten thousand lires, about $2500, from the apoletolic see of flome, around which the children of America are trigged to build a large fund for further felled of the children of Belgium, is narounced in an autograph letter from pope Benedict to cardinal Gibbons. pope Benedict to cardinal Gibbons. made public here raday. The pope har beer moved to his appeal to American children by a recent report from Herbert C. Hoever, chairman of the combert C. Hoover, chairmin of the com-mission for relief in Belglum, describ-ing "the pitable situation of numerous Belgian children, who, during two sad years have been suffering from the lack of that proper nogrishment neces-sary to mustain the tender existence of budding childhood." The pope's letter follows in part:

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA 8 MONTHS

All Over Face, Neck and Body. Broke Out in Blisters. Could Get No Sleep for Itching,

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"For about eight months I suffered from a had form of ecsema all over my face and neck, and it was soon all over my body. It first broke out in blisters and then myskin became inflamed in red spiashes all over my body. I could get no sleep for the itching and irritation, and I was compelled to scratch. My clothes stuck to my skin and my face was in such an awful fix I was ashamed.

"I saw Cuticura Soap and Ontiment advertised and I purchased a box of Cuticura Ontiment and a bar of Cuticura Soap. When I used three boxes of Curcura Ontiment and two bars of Cur-cura Soap I was healed completely." (Signed) Miss Susic Reed, Route I, Baugh, Tenn., April 6, 1916.

brought about by their failure to receive the food which children of their age require.

In his letter, the chairman has told us how, in order to ward off so much illness, his commission, displaying the very best of good will and stopping at no sacrifice, has arranged for distribution to the children of a daily supplementary meal. He sorrowfully adds, however, that unhappily, owing to insufficient means, the commission has found itself unable to prepare and supply such extra food to all the bables who have need of it.

Ples to American Children.

'In view of this condition of affairs, we have considered the work indicated so humanitarian and so hory that, in prompt compliance with the appeal addressed to us by those who are directing the work of the commission, we have decided to approve and recommend it, as we hereby do endorse it most heartly by these words to you, my lord cardinal, and through you, to the illustrious members of the American Episcopate, to the clergy and to every generous heart; but particularly to those children of America upon whom is based every hope of success for the plan devised by this beneficient institution.

Neither do we doubt, in truth, but whom is based every hope of success for the plan devised by this beneficient institution.

"Neither do we doubt, in truth, but that the happy children of America, without distinction of faith or of class, at this approach of another winter which it is announced will be even more severe and painful than the two proceding years, will vie, in their innocent pride, with each other to be able to extend to their little brothers and eisters of the Belgian nation, even though across the immense ocean, the helping hand and the offerings of that charity which knows no distance.

"At the same time, while being particularly happy to represent upon this earth that Jesus who was the dilvine friend of little children, we invoke from our heart upon all those who shall second and aid this noble and delicate undertaking an abundance of blessings and heavenly rewards, of which is a please the apostolic benediction which, with very special affection we impart to you, my lord cardinal, to your two colleagues in the sacred college, to the bishops, clergy and to all the faithful of the United States.

(Signed) Benedictus, PP XV.

"From the Vatican, the 18th of October, 1916."

Chrediant Gibbons in transmitting this appeal to the bishops, proposed general collections in the jurisdiction of each bishoppin.
